VI. POLICY
Rowan is an academic community which has instituted this Code to set forth standards, expectations, rights, and responsibilities consistent with its purpose as an educational institution. The University reaffirms the principle of student freedom; however, these tenets are coupled with an acceptance of full responsibility for one’s behavior and the associated consequences. Rowan recognizes the rights of its students guaranteed by the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New Jersey. These include a student’s rights to freedom of speech, expression, inquiry, assembly, peaceful pursuit of an education, reasonable use of services and facilities of the University, and the presumption of innocence.

Rowan promotes a diverse community that begins with students, faculty, staff, and administration who respect each other and value each other’s dignity. By identifying and removing barriers and fostering individual potential, Rowan will cultivate a community where all members can learn and grow. The Rowan community is committed to promoting a safe environment that encourages intellectual, academic, and social interaction and engagement across multiple intersections of identities. At Rowan, creating and maintaining a caring community that embraces diversity in its broadest sense is among the highest priorities.

As an institution of higher education, Rowan has the responsibility to expose students to educational opportunities that promote growth, development, and exposure to diverse and differing perspectives. As a result, designated University Officials have the right to engage in conversations with students in an effort to provide educational opportunities independent of any level of responsibility for violations of the Code. While it is the goal of the disciplinary process to educate students as to the purpose and importance of abiding by the Code, the University will also issue sanctions as appropriate and necessary to ensure continued and/or future adherence to this Code, and to protect the University community from disruptive behavior.

In addition to the Code, students must recognize and comply with the standards of classroom behavior as stated in their individual course syllabi. This document and supporting materials have been developed to guarantee procedural fairness to students when there has been an alleged failure to abide by Rowan policies and regulations. Procedures may vary in formality given the gravity and nature of the offense and the sanctions that may be applied. Each student is responsible for reading and complying with the Code.

1. Authority
   a. The Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designees has the responsibility for maintaining and implementing the Code. In a situation where a student's health or safety is seriously endangered, the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designees has the authority and will make every attempt to notify the student's parent/guardian as soon as possible.

2. Violation of Law and University Discipline
   a. Students may be accountable to multiple authorities for acts which violate the Code. University disciplinary action will normally proceed during the pendency of criminal proceedings. The University reserves the right to reach its own determination on violations of this Code independently of the outcome of any civil or criminal proceedings. Authorities include, but are not limited to,
      i. Civil
      ii. Criminal
      iii. Local
      iv. University Code
      v. University Policies

3. Conduct Rules
   a. Individual students and student organizations are expected to abide by the Conduct Rules and Regulations (see Attachment 3), and administrators are expected to enforce them. Additional rules and regulations may be promulgated during the year; announcements will be made upon adoption of the changes or additions. Attempting, abetting, or being an accessory to any act prohibited by the Code will be considered the same as a completed violation.

4. Rowan Global Students
   a. Rowan students in online or hybrid courses must also meet the “conduct” expectations as listed at www.rowanonline.com. Students participating in off-site Rowan Global Extension programs will also be expected to follow the guidelines provided by that facility. Questions should be directed to Academic and Student Services, Office of Graduate Studies, Division of Global Learning &
Partnerships at global@rowan.edu.

5. Violation Levels
a. Violations of the Code are generally adjudicated based upon their magnitude or seriousness.
   Multiple violations, or the severity of a single violation, may increase the given sanctions. Some acts of misconduct may fall within two or more standards of the Code. In such cases, the University has the right to impose all of the sanctions available for all of the violations (Attachment 8).

6. Appeals
a. Upon receiving notification of the outcome of a case, the Respondent, Complainant, victim (in cases of “crimes of violence” covered under this Code) or the Vice President of Student Life /Dean of Students or designee (in Campus Hearing Board cases) may file an appeal as outlined in Attachment 9. The appeals process described will be the final step in the discipline process and constitutes final University action.

7. Procedures for Interim Suspension of Course participation, presence on Campus or Residence Areas and participation in University Related Activities
a. A student may be suspended from continuing participation in coursework, being present on the campus or in campus residence areas, or from participation in University related activities for an interim period pending a disciplinary hearing. The interim suspension is effective immediately without prior notice whenever there is evidence that the continued presence of the student on the campus may pose a substantial threat to others in the University or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions. (Refer to Attachment 10)

8. Conduct Code Violations’ Effect upon Graduation
a. A student found responsible for violations of the Code, which could have led to expulsion or suspension had s/he/they remained a registered student at the University, and who has otherwise satisfied the University’s published requirements for graduation, may have the awarding of his/her/their degree postponed to a future date or permanently withheld. A student whose graduation is postponed or permanently withheld may also be refused a copy of his/her official transcript and cannot have it sent to others during the period of his/her/their sanction. In cases where graduation is delayed due to pending charges, cases normally will be adjudicated within as short a period of time as is practicable.

9. Release of Disciplinary Record Information
a. In accordance with current guidelines established in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and implemented by Rowan, the record of most disciplinary proceeding’s findings is not open to the public or disclosure to a third party without the consent of the individual student.
   i. The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, the N.J. Sexual Assault Victim's Bill of Rights, and/or 34 CFR 668.47(a)(12) (vi) and the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 (42 U.S.C 13925 (a)) does permit the disclosure of campus discipline system findings to victims of "crimes of violence." In addition, FERPA permits, once all appeals are exhausted, the final results of campus disciplinary hearings for crimes of violence to be publicly disclosed, including the name of the Respondent(s) held responsible and the nature of the offense.
   ii. Parents or guardians may be notified for cases involving certain crimes of violence and in certain cases involving violations of campus drug or alcohol regulations, when the student is a dependent (as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or when the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee deems the matter to have been a health or safety emergency. Complainants in other types of cases will be notified about case adjudication and sanctions imposed if, in the Vice President of Student Life /Dean of Students or designee’s opinion, such disclosure is necessary to protect the safety of the Complainant or of other members of the University community.
   iii. If FERPA or other pertinent regulations change, the students involved will be notified before a hearing is held. Information regarding FERPA Directory Information and the disclosure of information can be found on the Office of the University Registrar website at r owan.edu/provost/registrar/ferpa.html.
iv. The Office of Community Standards does not maintain or release police reports. Any request for a police report associated with a disciplinary case must be made to the issuing police department.

10. Record Keeping
   a. The Office of Community Standards will maintain student disciplinary files, which contain all necessary and appropriate correspondence, Hearing Officer, Hearing Board, and appeal decisions as well as other documentation pertinent to any cases for which a student was found responsible for a violation of the Code. Records of cases that are designated as "pending" will also be maintained. Student disciplinary files will be maintained as follows:
      i. Disciplinary records will normally be maintained for a period of seven (7) years after the last year of the student's attendance at the University. The destruction of student disciplinary records is coordinated with the Office of Contracting & Procurement utilizing Artemis (Records Retention and Disposition Management System) and in accordance with the State of New Jersey Records Retention Policy.
      ii. Records that are typically maintained are:
          1. Letters of communication
          2. Evidentiary materials
          3. Hearing Decision Letters
          4. Appeal Letters
      iii. The disciplinary records of students who were Suspended or Expelled will be maintained indefinitely.

11. Timelines
   a. All times set in the Code may be extended by the University, for good cause. Reasonable extensions will be determined by the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee.

12. Interpretation and Revision
   a. Any question of interpretation regarding the Code will be referred to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee for final determination. The Code may be periodically reviewed and amended as necessary under the direction of the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee.

Discipline may be imposed on students for conduct which occurs on University premises, in or out of the classroom setting, while using University technology, at off-campus instructional sites or during off-campus University affiliated events where students are representing the University. A University affiliated event is defined as an off-campus gathering of members of the Rowan community (and/or their guests) which is sponsored or funded in whole or in part by Rowan.

Rowan University – Glassboro Campus – Rowan Choice

Due to the unique nature of the program, Rowan Choice students are accountable for adherence to the Rowan University Student Code of Conduct (Code) and the policies of the institution(s) in which they are enrolled students. As a result, Rowan Choice students may be required to participate in multiple sessions to adjudicate any alleged violations depending upon the nature of the allegation(s).

Rowan University - Glassboro Campus

1. Filing a Complaint
Complaints against students/organizations may be made by any student, employee, or guest of the University who feels the Code has been violated. A complaint must be made in writing to the Office of Community Standards, (Chamberlain Student Center, Suite 210) or Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students (Salvitz 339) within a reasonable amount of time after the occurrence. This will normally be construed to mean within 30 calendar days, unless unusual circumstances exist, or it is an alleged crime that the University must report under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. The “Community Standards Referral Form” can be accessed at https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?RowanUniv&layout_id=6. The complaint should include as much detail concerning the alleged violation as possible and include the specific reference to the part of the Code the Complainant feels has been violated. The University reserves the right to investigate any reported incident, including those alleging biased behavior. Perceived criminal activity should be reported immediately to Public Safety, which will submit its report of a student violation to the Office of Community Standards. Whenever a complaint provides evidence that the continued presence of the Respondent(s) on the campus may pose a substantial threat to herself/himself, others in the University, or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions the University reserves the right to impose an interim suspension from classes, residence areas, or the entire campus pending a disciplinary hearing (refer to Attachment 10 for a complete description of procedures).

The following guidelines will be used to determine if a Student Organization/Group/Team would be charged with a violation of the Code:

   a. When one or more officers/authorized representatives/captains acting in the scope of their capacities committed the violation.
b. When one or more members committed the violation after the action that constitutes the violation was approved by a vote of the organization/group/team or was part of a committee assignment of the organization/group/team.

c. When the violation was committed at an activity funded by the organization/group/team.

d. When the violation occurred as a result of an event sponsored by the organization/group/team.

e. When one or more members of an organization/group/team or its officers/authorized representatives/captains permitted, encouraged, aided, or assisted in committing a violation.

f. When a reasonable person would construe the violation as being associated with the organization/group/team

2. Adjudication of Complaints
   a. The Assistant Dean of Students or designee will review the complaint and determine whether it should be adjudicated by the student discipline system, and, if so, the appropriate adjudicator will be determined. The review of the complaint may not require meeting with all parties, and the Assistant Dean of Students or designee will determine what meetings are necessary. For any disciplinary action for which sanctions may be imposed, the Respondent(s) will have his/her/their case heard before one of the following adjudicators:
      i. Administrative Hearing Officer – If the alleged violation is one for which the student/organization could not be suspended or expelled from the University, the complaint will be heard by an Administrative Hearing Officer.
      ii. Campus Hearing Board – If the alleged violation is one for which the student/organization could likely be suspended or expelled from the University, the complaint will be heard by the Campus Hearing Board. (refer to Attachment 5 for additional information concerning the Campus Hearing Board) A hold and a transcript notation indicating “Pending Discipline” will also be placed on the Respondent’s transcript.
      iii. Special Interim Hearing Board - If the Campus Hearing Board cannot meet, a Special Interim Hearing Board will be appointed at the discretion of the Office of Community Standards to expedite adjudication of student disciplinary cases under the following conditions:
           1. An interim suspension has been issued (see Attachment 10), or
           2. The case will be adjudicated when the Campus Hearing Board cannot convene (for example, final exam week, vacation periods, or summer school, etc.)

b. Given the sensitive nature and the unique legal issues related to cases involving sexual misconduct, sexual harassment and sexual assault complaints, they will be addressed under the University's Title IX Sexual Harassment/Sexual Assault Policy or Student Sexual Misconduct and Harassment Policy. To the extent such conduct may not be covered under either of those policies, it may be addressed under this Code.

c. Although the default method will be in-person sessions, the University will determine if the disciplinary hearing will take place in person or virtually.

d. Situations that do not warrant adjudication by the Office of Community Standards may be referred to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee for adjudication and/or educational discussions to address allegations.

e. All matters referred to an adjudicating administrator or body will begin with individual meetings to initiate a Student Conduct Informational Meeting (SCIM) document.

3. Notification
   a. When it is determined that a complaint will be adjudicated by the student disciplinary system, the Respondent(s) will be notified of the alleged violation in writing (the "Hearing Notice") via a tracked letter sent to the student’s Rowan email address. This is the official method of notification and students are responsible for checking their University email address daily. The Hearing notice will state what portion of the Code was allegedly violated. The student will be notified of the hearing date in the Hearing Notice. The student will receive notice of a hearing at least three (3) business days prior to an Administrative Hearing and five (5) business days prior to a hearing before the Campus Hearing Board or Special Interim Hearing Board.

b. If the Respondent or Complainant (if applicable) fails to attend the hearing, except when there is a justifiable reason (serious illness or hospitalization, death of member of immediate family, serious physical emergency, arrest or incarceration, or unavoidable transportation delay), the hearing will proceed in absentia and a finding will be reached based upon the available information. No negative inference will be made from a failure of the Respondent or Complainant to appear, participate, or speak during a hearing.

c. All participants have the right to select an Advisor of his/her/their choosing, including an attorney. Advisors are expected to communicate privately with the student in a non-disruptive manner. Advisors may have no other role in the hearing/case and are not permitted to speak on behalf of the student, ask questions, or appear in lieu of the student/organization. Advisor availability will not be sufficient grounds for postponing a hearing. A hearing will not be cancelled or postponed in the event an Advisor does not attend. If the Advisor is not able to attend, the Respondent or Complainant should arrange for a substitute.

d. A student who wishes to have an attorney as an Advisor must inform the Office of Community Standards in writing, by telephone, or electronic mail at least one (1) business day prior to a hearing. If a Complainant, Respondent, or other participant informs the University that an attorney will be present at the hearing, the University will decide if legal counsel for the University should also be present.

e. Both the Respondent and the Complainant have the right to request witnesses to provide information at the hearing. Witnesses must have personal knowledge of the incident at issue and may serve no other role at the hearing/case. Witnesses may be present at the hearing only at the time they are called to participate. A hearing will not be cancelled or postponed if a scheduled witness does not attend.

f. Written statements of witnesses not in attendance due to extraordinary circumstances may be considered by Hearing Officer or the Campus Hearing Board. Character witnesses are considered irrelevant and will not be permitted to participate. A list of witnesses must be submitted to the Office of Community Standards at least one (1) business day prior to the hearing for approval and notification to other parties. The list should include each witness' name and a summary of the information s/he/they is expected to provide.

4. Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver

   a. The Respondent and Complainant will also be informed if the disciplinary complaint can be resolved by completing an Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver. An Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver would be completed only when there is acknowledgement of responsibility on the part of the Respondent and agreement, by all parties including the Complainant, and/or victim that the sanction(s) imposed are reasonable and fair.

   b. The sanction will reflect the severity of the current charge(s) against the student/organization, as well as any previous disciplinary sanctions. All participants will also waive the rights to have the complaint adjudicated at a disciplinary hearing and appeal. Should the Respondent not accept responsibility for the charges, nor accept the proposed sanction(s), then appearance at the disciplinary hearing is required.

5. Administrative Hearing Officer Procedures

   a. A student/organization may challenge the assignment of a specific hearing officer to his/her/their case for good cause. This challenge must be presented in writing to the Office of Community Standards at least one (1) business day prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. Upon reviewing the details of the challenge, the Assistant Dean of Students or designee will either uphold the challenge and appoint an alternate hearing officer and arrange a new hearing or deny the challenge.

   b. A hearing officer will withdraw from adjudicating any case in which he/she/they cannot reach a fair and objective decision.

   c. The hearing officer will exercise control over the manner in which the hearing is conducted to avoid unnecessarily lengthy hearings and to prevent the harassment or intimidation of witnesses. This includes, but is not limited to, rejecting redundant or irrelevant questions and imposing reasonable limits on the number of factual witnesses that may participate. An explanation and record of any rejected question will be made. Technical legal rules of evidence, wording of questions, hearsay and opinions will not be formally applied. Anyone who disrupts a hearing or who fails to adhere to hearing procedures may be excluded from the proceeding at the discretion of the hearing officer.

   d. The hearing officer will review all materials, hear all information pertinent to the case from the Complainant, the Respondent, and witnesses. The hearing officer may also consult with other hearing officers who are assigned to hearings within the same disciplinary case, clarify issues raised, render a decision based on the information presented, and take all actions and make all determinations necessary and proper for the hearing.
e. The Respondent will be presumed not responsible for the allegation. The hearing officer will determine if it was "more likely than not" that the Respondent was responsible after considering all of the credible information provided during the disciplinary hearing process. If the student is found in violation of University rules, any submitted statement of mitigating factors, records within the student's past disciplinary file, and a written victim impact statement (if appropriate) will also be used in determining an appropriate sanction(s).
f. Following all hearings in the case, the hearing officer will provide the Respondent with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.
g. For cases involving a victim of "crimes of violence," (covered under this Code) the hearing officer will also provide the Complainant/victim with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

CAMPUS HEARING BOARD

Hearings for Rowan University and Rowan Choice students will follow the policies, procedures, and protocols as outlined in this Code. Hearings for Cooper Medical School of Rowan University, Rowan University Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences, Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine will follow appropriate protocols that are outlined in either the Code or documents specific to those academic areas.

1. Campus Hearing Board Structure
   a. The Campus Hearing Board is chaired by a non-voting Administrative Hearing Officer, who is normally an employee of the Student Life Division and most likely the Assistant Dean of Student Life. The Campus Hearing Board is composed of regular members and a pool of alternates.
      i. For cases involving Rowan Choice students, the Campus Hearing Board will focus upon matters related to living on campus and the impact of behaviors upon the Rowan University community. Decisions may range for a finding of "not responsible" to removal from housing. All materials associated with allegations against Rowan Choice students will be forwarded to designated officials at other institutions for possible further adjudication regarding their status as a student.
      ii. Rowan University hearings for Rowan Choice students will follow the policies, procedures, and protocols as outlined in the Code.
      iii. Hearing board members will be composed of:
          1. Three (3) members who are matriculated undergraduate or graduate students and in good standing with the University. Student members are selected through an application and selection process conducted by the Office of Community Standards. Information on membership requirements and the application is available on the Office of Community Standards website.
          2. Three (3) members of the University Senate who are appointed by the University Senate President.
          3. Three (3) members of the professional staff who are appointed by the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee.
      b. The Campus Hearing Board may be convened by a quorum of any five (5) members. For complaints that are adjudicated by a Special Interim Hearing Board any three (3) members of the Campus Hearing Board must be present. Title IX matters may be adjudicated with a single hearing board member. Title IX matters may be adjudicated with a single hearing board member.

2. Campus Hearing Board Procedures
   a. Any student appearing before the Campus Hearing Board may challenge the assignment of any member of the Board to his/her/their case. This challenge must be presented in writing to the Office of Community Standards at least one (1) business day prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. Upon reviewing the details of the challenge, the Assistant Dean of Student Life will either uphold the challenge and appoint an alternate member or deny the challenge. Any challenge at the time of the hearing, will be decided by the Chair.
b. A Campus Hearing Board member will withdraw from adjudicating any case in which s/he/they cannot reach a fair and objective decision.

c. There will be a recording of the hearing (excluding deliberations and voting) for the purpose of providing assistance to the Campus Hearing Board or Appeals Board in their deliberations and to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee, and Respondent or Complainant for use in filing an appeal. This recording remains the property of the University and constitutes an official record of the hearing. No other recording of the hearing is permitted.

d. The Chair will make all determinations on questions of procedure and admissibility of information presented and will not be excluded from hearings or deliberations except that s/he/they will not vote. The Chair will exercise control over the manner in which the hearing is conducted to avoid unnecessarily lengthy hearings and to prevent the harassment or intimidation of witnesses. This includes, but is not limited to, rejecting redundant or irrelevant questions and imposing reasonable limits on the number of factual witnesses that may participate. An explanation and record of any rejected question will be made. Technical legal rules of evidence, the wording of questions, hearsay, and opinions will not be formally applied. Anyone who disrupts a hearing or who fails to adhere to hearing procedures may be excluded from the proceeding at the discretion of the Chair.

e. The Respondent will be asked to elaborate if he/she/they are responsible or not responsible for the alleged violation(s). If the Respondent admits responsibility, questions will be asked to provide informed context to the sanctioning phase of the process. If the Respondent states he/she/they are not responsible for the alleged violation(s), questions will be asked to determine preponderance related to the allegations.

f. The Board will review all materials and hear all information pertinent to the case from the Complainant, Respondent, and all witnesses. Members of the Board, including the Chair, will be free to ask relevant questions in order to clarify information or resulting issues.

g. The Respondent will be presumed not responsible for the allegation(s). After private deliberations, and by a majority vote, the Board will determine preponderance as to whether the Respondent is responsible or not responsible. A tie vote will result in a finding of “not responsible.”

h. If the Respondent is found responsible, the Board will determine the appropriate sanction(s) to be imposed by majority vote. The past disciplinary record of the Respondent(s) will not be supplied to the Board by the Chair prior to this point. Other information from either party, including any submitted statement of mitigating factors, a written victim impact statement if appropriate, or information from the Chair which is relevant to the choice of sanction(s), may also be introduced at this point, including information concerning sanctions imposed against other students for similar offenses. No information directly related to the case in question may be introduced for the first time unless the Respondent has been informed and allowed to review and comment on the information.

i. Following the hearing, the Chair will provide the Respondent with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

j. For cases involving a victim of "crimes of violence", (covered under this Code) the Chair will also provide the victim with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

k. The Chair will also provide the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee with written notification of the decision reached and supporting case documents for the purpose of conducting a “Case Review.” At the conclusion of the review, the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee may also file an appeal of the decision.

RIGHTS IN ALL DISCIPLINARY HEARINGS

The University disciplinary system is not a criminal or civil law process and the technical legal rules of evidence, wording of questions, hearsay and opinions applicable in criminal and civil cases will not apply. University disciplinary hearings will accord the following specific rights to all students/organizations:

1. To receive written notice of any disciplinary charges.
2. To have reasonable access to the case file prior to and during any hearing, provided that all reviews, prior to the hearing, take place in the Office of Community Standards. Any alternate arrangements for the case file review may be made at the discretion of the Office of Community Standards. Note: The Office of Community Standards does not maintain or release police reports. Any request for a police report associated with a disciplinary case must be made to the issuing police department.

3. To have access to advice and support by an individual of his or her choosing, including an attorney.

4. To have no negative inference made from a failure of the Respondent(s) or Complainant to appear, participate or speak during a hearing.

5. The Respondent(s) will be presumed not responsible for any allegation. Violation is found only after a review of the credible information presented determines that it was “more likely than not” that the Respondent(s) was responsible.

6. The Respondent(s) and the Complainant will be given the opportunity to participate in the hearing, present information on their own behalf, bring witnesses and question those who provide information at their hearing. This does not include the right to ask questions directly.

7. Disciplinary hearings will be closed to all members of the campus and outside community except those directly involved with the case (including an individual selected as an Advisor).

8. Following the completion of all hearings associated with a complaint, the Respondent(s) will receive written notification of the decision reached. The notification will also include a list of any sanctions imposed and appeal information.

9. The Respondent(s) will have the right to waive any of these rights.

10. The Respondent(s) may submit a written statement to the Office of Community Standards detailing the presence of any mitigating factors. This statement will be considered when determining an appropriate sanction and only if the Respondent is found responsible.

11. A Complainant or victim may submit a written statement to the Office of Community Standards detailing the impact the violation has had upon them and their ability to function as a student. This statement will be considered when determining an appropriate sanction and only if the Respondent is found responsible.

13. To be free from intimidation, harassment, bullying, or any other form of retaliation throughout and following the disciplinary process.

SANCTIONS

Hearing Officers, Campus Hearing Boards, or Special Interim Hearing Boards may impose a single or multiple sanctions for violations of the Code. Factors to be considered in deciding sanctions will include: past disciplinary record of the student, monetary fines resulting from a corresponding court case, the nature of the violation, and severity of any damage, injury, or harm resulting from it as perceived by the victim, and/or appropriate University officials. The imposition of a sanction will normally be effective either on the date that the University provides the party with the written determination of the result of an appeal, if any appeal is filed; or if an appeal is not filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely. A disciplinary suspension or expulsion will normally result in withdraws from all the registered courses in the effective term, (not to exceed one academic term) regardless of the courses still being in progress or if final grades were submitted. Any request to have the effective date of a sanction deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

Normally there will be no refund of tuition/fees if expulsion, suspension or withdrawal from courses and/or University housing is affected because of violations of the Code. Any request for a refund due to these circumstances must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

Sanctions, which may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Code, include the following:
1. Official Warning: A written statement indicating a violation of the Code has occurred and warning that a subsequent violation will likely be treated more severely.

2. Educational Task: Completion of task(s) which benefit the individual, campus, or community.

3. Monetary Fine: The student is required to pay a fine that has been placed onto their student account.

4. Suspension of Activity Privileges: The student cannot be a member of a recognized student organization, participate in organizations' regularly scheduled activities, serve as a representative of the University, or participate in intramural, club, or intercollegiate sports. Notification of this sanction/status will be sent to appropriate University officials so they will know who may not participate in activities sponsored by their offices.

5. Disciplinary Probation: a designated period of time during which the student is given the opportunity to demonstrate the ability to abide by the community's expectations of behavior articulated in the Code and is not considered to be in good social standing with the Another violation will likely result in a more severe sanction.

6. Suspension of Residence Privileges: The student's privilege to live in University-owned housing, and visit the residence areas of the campus, is suspended on a temporary or permanent basis. Any request to have the effective date of the Suspension of Residence Privileges deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis. The student is not entitled to any refund of campus housing and/or meal plan fees. An y request for a refund must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

7. Suspension: The student may no longer be a registered student, attend classes, or receive grades for a specified period of time. In addition, while in this status, the student may not be present on the campus nor at a University-sponsored event for any reason whatsoever. The suspension will be noted on the student's academic transcript. The sanction will be effective either on the date that the University provides the party with the written determination of the result of an appeal, if any appeal is filed, or if an appeal is not filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely. Any request to have the effective date of the Suspension deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis. The student is not entitled to any refund of any tuition/fees. Any request for a refund must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

8. Expulsion: The student may never again be a registered student, attend classes, or receive grades. In addition, the student may never be present on the campus nor at a University-sponsored event for any reason whatsoever. The expulsion will be noted on the student's academic transcript. The sanction will be effective either on the date that the University provides the party with the written determination of the result of an appeal, if any appeal is filed, or if an appeal is not filed, the date on which an appeal would no longer be considered timely. Any request to have the effective date of the Expulsion deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis. The student is not entitled to any refund of any tuition/fees. Any request for a refund must be made in writing to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students and will be decided on a case-by-case basis.

9. Other sanctions: Other sanctions may be imposed in addition to, or instead of, those described in #1 through #9 above. For example, costs associated with educational programs or damage repair fees may be charged or students may have use of University facilities limited or revoked.

Students who are found responsible for Code violations which involve alcohol/drug (ab)use, may be required to attend educational programs intended to inform them about alcohol/drug use and abuse.

a. The Office of Community Standards may notify parents/guardians of students less than 21 years of age when a student is found responsible for a violation of the Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy. Rowan Public Safety may notify parents/legal guardians when citations have been issued by law enforcement officials, without waiting for a hearing or any other due process since citations given by the law enforcement unit of a university are not covered by FERPA.

b. Bias motivated offenses may result in more severe sanctions. Such offenses are defined as any offense wherein the Respondent(s) intentionally selects the alleged victim because of the victim's actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical, or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, or any other class protected under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1 et. seq.
c. Any sanction may be put on hold or deferred (i.e. not put into effect) for a predetermined period of time by the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or his/her/their designee. The original sanction(s) may be re-imposed immediately upon a further finding responsibility in a subsequent campus disciplinary hearing at any level.

d. Sanctions for group or organization misconduct may include suspension, revocation or denial of recognition, partial or total de-funding, or the imposition of other appropriate sanctions.

e. A student who fails to complete the terms of a campus disciplinary sanction by the given deadline will receive a monetary fine for noncompliance and could be charged with noncompliance under the Code.

f. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), violators of provisions of the Code pertaining to certain "crimes of violence" may have their names and disciplinary findings publicly revealed.

g. Students should be aware that conviction in criminal court for certain controlled substance offenses including drug possession and/or sale may have them declared ineligible for Federal financial aid for a period of time. See the Financial Aid Office for details.

APPLICATION OF STANDARD SANCTIONS

1. Standard sanctions have been adopted by Rowan to respond to disciplinary violations. Of particular concern are substance abuse- related violations, off-campus conduct violations, as well as weapon and violence violations of the Code. Rowan is deeply concerned about the extent to which some students engage in underage consumption of alcohol, unlawful use of drugs, and/or consumption of alcohol or other drugs to a degree that renders them in need of emergency medical intervention or other extraordinary assistance. In addition, Rowan seeks to deter students from engaging in conduct that poses risks to the safety and well-being of the individual student and/or the University and Glassboro community as a whole.

2. Standard sanctions are intended to alert students and other members of the University community to the seriousness of alcohol-related and drug-related behaviors, violence, and safety violations; provide meaningful consequences for violations of the Code; and ensure that students are provided opportunities to access education, counseling, and support. Standard sanctions apply only to those offenses described below.

3. Standard sanctions listed below apply to misconduct that occurs both on-campus and off-campus, at the discretion of the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee. Incidents falling within the Code but not described below will be handled on a case-by-case basis in light of all the circumstances.

4. Students found responsible for multiple violations will receive the cumulative sanctions associated with each violation.

5. Although the Standard Sanction Model is critically important to the Rowan process for addressing disciplinary matters, it is intended to be a guiding tenet. Each matter will be evaluated based upon the unique circumstances found during the process. Those circumstances may warrant deviation from the Standard Sanction Model. This may be true in the case of one or multiple violations.

APPEALS

1. Upon receiving notification of the outcome of a case, the Respondent(s), Complainant, victim (in cases of "crimes of violence) covered under this Code, or the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee (in Campus Hearing Board cases) may file an appeal under the following circumstances:
   a. Procedural irregularity or substantive error that affected the outcome of the matter. Deviations from the University's policy/procedures will not be a basis for sustaining an appeal unless significant prejudice resulted.
   b. New evidence that was not reasonably available at the time the determination regarding responsibility or dismissal was made, that could affect the outcome of the matter.
   c. The decision-maker(s) had a conflict of interest or bias for or against Complainants or Respondents generally or the individual Complainant or Respondent that affected the outcome of the matter; or
   d. The Disciplinary Sanction(s) imposed were substantially disproportionate or not appropriate in light of the violation(s).
2. All appeals must be made within five (5) business days of the date on the letter informing the parties of the decision. Appeals must be submitted in writing to the designated appeal officer and should explain in detail the basis of the request, including any supporting documentation.
3. Upon receipt of the written appeal, the Assistant Dean of Student Life may defer the imposition of the sanction(s) pending the decision on the appeal. Note: Interim Suspension as well as any other prior restrictions will remain in effect during the appeal process.
4. Cases adjudicated by the Campus Hearing Board will be forwarded to the Campus Appeals Board. All other cases will be forwarded to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee.
5. An appeal will be responded to in a timely manner (usually two weeks) and a final decision will be issued in writing either accepting or denying the appeal. The student will be informed of any delay by the assigned Appeal Officer.
6. The Assistant Dean of Student Life or designee is responsible for compiling the appeal documentation for review, scheduling the appeal review meeting as well as sending all correspondence to the parties involved. The Assistant Dean of Student Life or designee will have no other role during the appeal review meeting.

   b. The Board will review the written appeal and all documentation contained in the case file in a closed meeting. The Board by a simple majority vote will deny or uphold the appeal. If an appeal is upheld based on procedural error or new information reasons, the case will be remanded to the Campus Hearing Board for re-opening of the hearing. If an appeal is upheld based on inappropriate sanction reason, the Board will render the appropriate determination and/or sanction.

c. All Campus Appeals Board decisions are final and will be forwarded to the Office of Community Standards for immediate implementation.

8. When it is not possible for the Campus Appeals Board to meet in a timely fashion (for example, final exam week, vacation periods, summer school, etc.), an appeal from the Campus Hearing Board may be reviewed by the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students (or Designee) for final disposition.

9. The appeals process described will be the final step in the discipline process and constitutes final University action.

ATTACHMENT 10
PROCEDURES FOR INTERIM SUSPENSION FROM COURSE PARTICIPATION, PRESENCE ON CAMPUS OR RESIDENCE AREAS AND PARTICIPATION IN UNIVERSITY RELATED ACTIVITIES

1. A student may be suspended from the entire campus, residence areas, extracurricular or other University related activities (i.e., Internships, work study, etc.) for an interim period pending a disciplinary hearing; the interim suspension is effective immediately and without prior notice whenever there is evidence that the continued presence of the student on the campus may pose a substantial threat to others in the University or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions.

2. During an interim suspension from the entire campus, a student is not permitted to continue to participate in coursework in person or online, submit academic work or correspond with instructors. Course instructors and other appropriate staff are informed. Special permission is needed for the student to conduct routine business with the University, during this time.

3. The Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students or designee is authorized to impose Interim Suspensions.

4. If a student wishes to return to classes and/or residence on campus, he or she is required to make an appointment to meet with a designated administrator within five (5) business days from the effective date of suspension. The purpose of this Interim Suspension appointment is to determine the following:
   a. The reliability of the information concerning the student's conduct, including the matter of his/her identity
   b. Whether the conduct and surrounding circumstances reasonably indicate that the continued presence of the student on the campus or at University activities likely poses a substantial threat to others or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions.

5. A disciplinary hearing will be scheduled at another time to hear the substantive issues involved. This follows the Interim Suspension appointment with the designated administrator and employs the procedures outlined earlier. An Interim Suspension, in and of itself, does not become part of a student's disciplinary record.

PROCEDURES ADDRESSING ALLEGATIONS OF DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND RETALIATION (Student v. Student)

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 provides that “[n]o person in the United States shall, on the ground of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.” As an institution receiving Federal Funding, in accordance with Title VI, Rowan University prohibits discrimination, whether verbal, written, physical or psychological, based upon the following protected categories: race, creed, color, national origin/ethnicity, nationality, ancestry, age, sex/gender, pregnancy, marital status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, familial status, religion, affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait, genetic information, liability for service in the Armed Forces of the United States, disability or any other protected classification (N.J.A.C. 4A:7-3.1).

Rowan University is committed to creating and maintaining an educational and living environment free from discrimination. If students feel they have been the victim of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation caused by a faculty or staff member, they should refer to the Rowan University Policy Prohibiting Discrimination in the Workplace and Educational Environment.

If students believe they are the victim of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation caused by another student, they should refer to the Student Code of Conduct (Code). Individuals are strongly encouraged to promptly file a complaint by contacting the Office of Student Equity and Compliance and/or by filling out the Student Complaint Form for Discrimination/Harassment/ Retaliation Complaints. Individuals may also file complaints directly with the Office for Civil Rights, United States Department of Education:

New Jersey, New York, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands Office for Civil Rights New York Office U.S. Department of Education

New York, NY 10005-2500
Telephone: 646-428-3800 Fax: 646-428-3843 E-mail: OCR.NewYork@ed.gov

Once a complaint of alleged discrimination, harassment, or retaliation by another student is received, the following resolution procedures will be initiated:

1. When a complaint is filed, action will be taken to review the matter within seven (7) business days to determine if there is sufficient information to initiate formal resolution measures. The Associate Vice President/Title IX Coordinator will determine the most appropriate avenue of response, including but not limited to, coordination with other University resources such as the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students. Where appropriate, the use of voluntary and informal resolution measures, such as mediation, may be used. Voluntary and informal resolution measures may not be used in cases where the allegations involve violence.
   Note: If a report is deemed to be a potential violation of Title IX Sexual Harassment/Sexual Assault Policy or the Student Sexual Misconduct and Harassment Policy, the matter will be referred to the Title IX Coordinator.

2. At the Associate Vice President’s discretion, where deemed necessary, a formal resolution procedure will be initiated. The AVP will conduct a comprehensive, impartial investigation. The investigation may include interviewing the parties involved, including witnesses, review of written statements, and the gathering of other relevant information. Investigations will adhere to the following tenets:
   a. CONFIDENTIALITY: The University will endeavor to maintain the confidentiality of reported matters and of individuals involved, except to the extent necessary to carry out the purposes of this policy, including conducting investigations, and where required by law.
   b. NOTICE: Once a formal resolution procedure has been started, the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) will be notified in writing.
   c. ADVISORS: The Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) have the right to an advisor of their choice during this investigation process. An advisor may be a family member, attorney or other third party. Advisors may be present to support the parties; however, advisors are not permitted to speak on behalf of any party during this process.
   d. LENGTH OF INVESTIGATION: While the length of the process may vary based on the facts, circumstances, and witness availability in each case, every effort will be made to conclude the investigation within sixty (60) days provided doing so does not compromise the University’s ability to conduct a fair, impartial, and thorough investigation and adjudicative process.
   e. STANDARD OF EVIDENCE: A finding under this policy will be based on the preponderance of the evidence standard, in other words, a finding will be made if the evidence as a whole shows that is more likely than not that a violation of this policy occurred.
3. Upon completion of an investigation, the AVP will prepare a written investigation report. This report will include a comprehensive description of the evidence gathered during the investigation, the investigator’s findings of fact, credibility determinations and whether a policy violation has occurred.

4. The Associate Vice President will issue a determination letter to the Complainant(s) and Respondent(s) stating whether the allegations of discrimination, harassment, or retaliation are substantiated or not substantiated.
   a. If the allegations are substantiated (i.e., upheld or proven to be factual), the matter will be sent to the Division of Student Life for the imposition of sanctions (Attachment 7), disciplinary action, and/or educational interventions in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct.
   b. If a party wish(es) to appeal the determination, they may request an appeal under the following circumstances:
      i. A procedural or substantive error occurred in the process that significantly impacted the outcome of the hearing (e.g., material deviation from university policy; substantial bias; the findings and decision are contrary to the great weight of the evidence);
      ii. New and significant information has become available which could not have been discovered by a properly diligent person before or during the hearing; or
      iii. The sanction/disciplinary action imposed is inappropriate in light of the violation.
   c. Appeal requests should be made to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students, or designee, in writing, within five (5) business days of receiving the decision letter. All appeal requests will be reviewed within fifteen (15) business days, and the decision of the Vice President of Student-life/Dean of Students will be final.

Adjudication of Complaints

Once the Associate Vice President refers a matter to the Division of Student Life, the following protocol will be implemented:

1. The Assistant Dean of Student Life or designee will review the complaint and determine whether it should be adjudicated by the student discipline system, and, if so, the appropriate adjudicator will be determined. Matters not referred to the disciplinary system may be adjudicated through educational interventions implemented by the Vice President of Student Life or designee. The review of the complaint may not require meeting with all parties; The Assistant Dean of Student Life or designee will determine what meetings are necessary. For any disciplinary action for which sanctions may be imposed, the Respondent(s) will have his/her/their case heard before one of the following adjudicators:
   a. Administrative Hearing Officer - If the alleged violation is one for which the student/organization could not be suspended or expelled from the University, the complaint will be heard by an Administrative Hearing Officer.
   b. Campus Hearing Board - If the alleged violation is one for which the student/organization could likely be suspended or expelled from the University, the complaint will be heard by the Campus Hearing Board. (Refer to Attachment 5 for additional information concerning the Campus Hearing Board) A hold and a transcript notation indicating “Pending Discipline” will also be placed on the Respondent’s transcript.
   c. Special Interim Hearing Board - If the Campus Hearing Board cannot meet, a Special Interim Hearing Board will be appointed at the discretion of the Office of Community Standards to expedite adjudication of student disciplinary cases under the following conditions:
      i. An interim suspension has been issued (see Attachment 10), or
      ii. The case will be adjudicated when the Campus Hearing Board cannot convene (for example, final exam week, vacation periods, or summer school, etc.)

2. The University will determine if the disciplinary hearing takes place in-person or virtually.

3. Notification and Communication
   a. When it is determined that a complaint will be adjudicated by the student disciplinary system, the Respondent(s) will be notified of the alleged violation in writing (the “Hearing Notice”) via a tracked letter sent to the student’s Rowan email address. This is the official method of notification and students are responsible for checking their University email address daily. The Hearing notice will state what portion of the Code was allegedly violated. The student will be notified of
3. a. The hearing date in the Hearing Notice. The student will receive notice of a hearing at least three (3) business days prior to an Administrative Hearing and five (5) business days prior to a hearing before the Campus Hearing Board or Special Interim Hearing Board.

b. If the Respondent(s) or Complainant, if applicable, fails to attend the hearing, except when there is a justifiable reason (serious illness or hospitalization, death of member of immediate family, serious physical emergency, arrest or incarceration, or unavoidable transportation delay), the hearing will proceed, and a finding will be reached in absentia based upon the available information. No negative inference will be made from a failure of the Respondent(s) or Complainant to appear, participate or speak during a hearing.

c. All participants have the right to select an Advisor of their choosing, including an attorney. Advisors are expected to communicate privately with the student in a non-disruptive manner. Advisors may have no other role in the hearing/case and are not permitted to speak on behalf of the student, ask questions, or appear in lieu of the student/organization. Advisor availability will not be sufficient grounds for postponing a hearing. A hearing will not be cancelled or postponed in the event an Advisor does not attend. If the Advisor is not able to attend, the Respondent(s) or Complainant should arrange for a substitute.

d. A student who wishes to have an attorney as an Advisor must inform the Office of Community Standards in writing, or electronic mail at least one (1) business day prior to a hearing. If a Complainant, Respondent(s) or other participant informs the University that an attorney will be present at the hearing, the University will decide if legal counsel for the University should also be present.

e. Both the Respondent(s) and the Complainant have the right to request witnesses to provide information at the hearing. Witnesses must have personal knowledge of the incident at issue and may serve no other role at the hearing/case. Witnesses may be present at the hearing only at the time they are called to participate. A hearing will not be cancelled or postponed if a scheduled witness does not attend.

f. Written statements of witnesses not in attendance due to extraordinary circumstances may be considered by the Hearing Officer or Campus Hearing Board. Character witnesses are considered irrelevant and will not be permitted to participate. A list of witnesses must be submitted to the Office of Community Standards at least one (1) business day prior to the hearing for approval and notification to other parties. The list should include each witness' name and a summary of the information s/he/they is expected to provide.

4. Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver
   a. The Respondent(s) and Complainant will be informed if the disciplinary complaint can be resolved by completing an Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver. An Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver would be completed only when there is acknowledgement of responsibility on the part of the Respondent(s), and agreement, by all parties including the Complainant, and/or victim that the sanction(s) imposed are reasonable and fair.

b. Sanction(s) will reflect the severity of the current charge(s) against the student/organization, as well as any previous disciplinary sanctions. All participants will voluntarily waive their rights to have the complaint adjudicated at a disciplinary hearing and appeal. Should the Respondent(s) not accept responsibility for the charges, nor accept the proposed sanction(s), then appearance at the disciplinary hearing is required.

5. Administrative Hearing Officer Procedures
   a. A student/organization may challenge the assignment of a specific hearing officer for reasonable cause. This challenge must be presented in writing to the Office of Community Standards at least one (1) business day prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. Upon reviewing the details of the challenge, the Assistant Dean of Student Life or designee will either uphold the challenge and appoint an alternate hearing officer and arrange a new hearing or deny the challenge.

b. Hearing officers will withdraw from adjudicating any case in which they cannot reach a fair and objective decision.

c. The hearing officer will exercise control over the manner in which the hearing is conducted to avoid unnecessarily lengthy hearings and to prevent the harassment or intimidation of witnesses. This includes, but is not limited to, rejecting redundant or irrelevant questions and imposing reasonable limits on the number of factual witnesses that may participate. An explanation and record of any rejected question will be made. Technical legal rules of evidence, the wording of questions, hearsay and opinions will not be formally applied. Anyone who disrupts a hearing or who fails to adhere to hearing procedures may be excluded from the proceeding at the discretion of the hearing officer.

d. The hearing officer will review all materials, hear all information pertinent to the case from the Complainant, the Respondent(s) and witnesses, consult with other hearing officers who are assigned to hearings within the same disciplinary case, clarify issues raised, render a decision based on the information presented, and take all actions and make all determinations necessary and proper for the hearing.

e. The Respondent(s) will be presumed not responsible for the allegation. The hearing officer will determine if it was "more likely than not" that the Respondent was responsible after considering all of the credible information provided during the disciplinary hearing process. If the student is found responsible for a violation of University rules, any submitted statement of mitigating factors, records within the student's past disciplinary file and a written victim impact statement, if appropriate, will also be used in determining an appropriate sanction(s).

f. Following all hearings in the case, the hearing officer will provide the Respondent(s) with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

g. For cases involving a victim of "crimes of violence," (covered under this Code) the hearing officer will also provide the victim with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING OFF CAMPUS CONCERNS

As noted previously, students are responsible and accountable for their behaviors on and off campus. Although many matters will be adjudicated through the established protocols outlined in the Code, some allegations may be handled through the following process:

Context:

It is essential that Rowan University implements a process which values the importance of independence for students who live off campus while at the same time appropriately addressing concerns which may negatively impact community members, landlords, students, and/or the reputation of Rowan University.

This process will allow students to have input into the process to promote education and behavioral change with their peers. The model will be implemented as a complement to the protocols outlined in the Student Code of Conduct (Code) and does not serve as a replacement of the Code.

In addition to this process, matters of hazing, recruitment violations, etc. involving fraternities and sororities will be referred to the Director of Orientation and Student Leadership Programs for communication with appropriate agencies such as National Offices. Similarly, matters involving student-athletes will be referred to the Director of Athletics, and organizational conduct matters involving other student clubs to the Associate Vice President for Student Life.

Matters that involve allegations related to discrimination, harassment, retaliation, sexual misconduct, Title IX, physical assault, etc. will be referred to appropriate University Officials (Office of Student Equity and Compliance, Community Standards, Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students, etc.).

Definitions:

Letter: One option for addressing concerns will be a letter sent to individuals and/or groups who are associated with a Minor Allegation. The letter will serve as an acknowledgement of the concern(s), opportunity to make changes, and a record in case further concerns come to the attention of University Officials.
Minor Allegation: Reports that an individual or group has violated community standards, ordinances, and/or laws that do not cause significant threat to individuals, the community, and/or the reputation of Rowan University. Examples include, but are not limited to, excessive noise, large gatherings, and community complaints.

Major Allegations: Reports that an individual or group has violated community standards, ordinances, and/or laws that cause significant threat to individuals, the community, and/or the reputation of Rowan University. Examples include, but are not limited to, urinating in public, lack of cooperation with designated authorities, and multiple minor violations/allegations.

Off-Campus Student Conduct Board: A body composed of students and Student Life staff that will adjudicate allegations of concern that occur off-campus. Designated University Officials will assign students to serve as members of the board. An Off-Campus Student Conduct Board must have a minimum of three members and will be chaired by a designated Student Life staff member.

Sanction: A variety of opportunities to assist individuals or groups with the process of learning from actions or behaviors which have impacted others with the intent of preventing similar behaviors from occurring in the future.

University Official: Any person employed by Rowan, performing assigned administrative or professional responsibilities.

Process:

Information that comes to the attention of designated University Officials will be reviewed and referred to appropriate parties and procedures. If a report is sent to the Off-Campus Concerns protocol, the following with apply:

1. Designated University Officials will review available information and determine if the matter is a Minor Allegation, Major Allegation, or repeat offense.
2. Any matter that could result in the suspension or expulsion of a student or group will be referred to procedures as outlined in the Code.
3. Sanctioning may occur at any level of the process when circumstances warrant such action.
4. Unless a report contains allegations of egregious behavior(s), the first Minor Allegation will result in a letter being sent to those individuals and/or groups associated with the allegation(s). The letter will serve as an acknowledgement of the concern(s), opportunity to make changes, and a record in case further concerns come to the attention of University Officials.
5. Unless a report contains allegations of egregious behavior(s), the second Minor Allegation will result in a meeting between those individuals and/or groups associated with the allegation(s) and designated University Officials. Based upon the meeting, designated University Officials may impose sanctions on individuals or groups.
6. All Major Allegations and reports of three or more alleged violations will result in the matter being referred to the Off-Campus Student Conduct Board.
7. The Off-Campus Student Conduct Board shall be chaired by a designated University Official and must have at least three members to constitute a quorum.
8. Students or groups going before an Off-Campus Student Conduct Board will receive notice and information pertaining to the allegation(s) at least five (5) days prior to the session.
9. During the board session, individual students or groups will have the opportunity to present information that provides context and/or refutes the allegation(s).
10. Witnesses will be allowed to present information at the discretion of the chair.
11. Based upon all available information, the board will determine if the student(s) or group(s) are responsible or not responsible for a violation. Determinations will be made using Preponderance as the standard and a simple majority vote of the board members.
12. The outcome and any sanctions will be shared with students or groups via Maxient Letter within five (5) days of the board session.
13. Students or groups who wish to appeal the decision may do so to the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students following the appeals process outlined in the Code.

14. Appeal decisions made by the Vice President of Student Life/Dean of Students are final.

NON-RESPONSE POLICY

In accordance with federal regulations, University policies, and respect for students, Rowan University is committed to addressing all matters in a timely manner. As a result, it is essential that students check official University communications (emails, on-line postings, etc.) on a regular basis.

Designated University officials will send messages to students as appropriate and/or necessary. The following expectations apply to students:

1. Students are responsible for checking their emails on a regular basis.
2. Requests to meet and/or provide information will be sent via email with a deadline for response.
3. Failure of a student to respond will result in the generation of a “reminder” message. The second message will be sent via email with a deadline for response.
4. Failure to respond to a “reminder” message will result in action in absentia.
5. Although rare, Rowan University understands that there could be reasonable causes for failure to respond and/or the need for an extended deadline. Students must request an exemption in written form prior to the established deadline.
