VI. POLICY

Rowan University is an academic community and as such the University has instituted this Student Code of Conduct to set forth the standards and expectations that are consistent with its purpose as an educational institution. The University reaffirms the principle of student freedom, coupled with an acceptance of full responsibility for one's behavior and the consequences of such behavior. Rowan University recognizes the rights of its students guaranteed by the Constitutions of the United States and the State of New Jersey, which include a student's rights within the institution to freedom of speech, expression, inquiry, assembly, peaceful pursuit of an education, reasonable use of services and facilities of the University and the presumption of innocence.
This Code of Conduct applies equally to all Rowan students regardless of their race, color, age, physical/mental disability, veteran status, religion or creed, citizenship, national origin or ancestry, sex, gender identity, gender expression, affectional or sexual orientation. This Code of Conduct covers all female, male, gender non-conforming, and transgender students.

Rowan University promotes a diverse community that begins with students, faculty, staff and administration who respect each other and value each other’s dignity. By identifying and removing barriers and fostering individual potential, Rowan will cultivate a community where all members can learn and grow. The Rowan University community is committed to a safe environment that encourages intellectual, academic, and social interaction and engagement across multiple intersections of identities. At Rowan University, creating and maintaining a caring community that embraces diversity in its broadest sense is among the highest priorities.

Rowan University is committed to addressing persistent issues related to diversity, equity and inclusion that result in positive outcomes for students, faculty, and staff.

While it is the goal of the disciplinary process to educate students as to the purpose and importance of abiding by the Student Code of Conduct, the University will also issue sanctions as are appropriate and necessary to ensure continued and/or future adherence to this Code, and to protect the University community from disruptive behavior.

In addition to the Code, students must also recognize and comply with the standards of classroom behavior as stated in their individual course syllabi. This document and supporting materials have been developed to guarantee procedural fairness to students when there has been an alleged failure to abide by Rowan University’s policies and regulations. Procedures may vary in formality given the gravity and nature of the offense and the sanctions that may be applied. Each student is responsible for reading and complying with the Student Code of Conduct.

1. Authority
   a. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and his/her designees have the responsibility for maintaining and implementing the Student Code of Conduct. In a situation where a student’s health or safety is/was seriously endangered the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or his/her designees will make every attempt to notify the student's parent/guardian as soon as possible.

2. Violation of Law and University Discipline
   a. Students may be accountable to both the University and to civil authorities for acts which violate the Student Code of Conduct. Disciplinary action at the University will normally proceed during the pendency of criminal proceedings. The University reserves the right to reach its own determination on violations of this Code independently of the outcome of any civil or criminal proceedings.

3. Conduct Rules
   a. Individual students and student organizations are expected to abide by the Conduct Rules and Regulations (see Attachment 3), and administrators are expected to enforce them. Additional rules and regulations may be promulgated during the year; announcements will be made upon adoption of the changes or additions. Attempting, abetting, or being an accessory to any act prohibited by the Student Code of Conduct will be considered the same as a completed violation.

4. Rowan Global Students
   a. Rowan students in online or hybrid courses must also meet the "conduct" expectations as listed at www.rowanonline.com. Students participating in off-site Rowan Global Extension programs will also be expected to follow the guidelines provided by that facility. Questions should be directed to the Office of the Associate Director, Office of Graduate Studies, Division of Global Learning & Partnerships at global@rowan.edu.

5. Violation Levels
   a. Violations of the Student Code of Conduct are generally grouped into three levels based upon their magnitude or seriousness. Multiple violations or the severity of a single violation may increase the given sanction. Some acts of misconduct may fall within two or more standards of the Student Code of Conduct. In such cases, the University has the right to impose all of the sanctions available for all of the violations.

   i. Level One violations are generally a breach of the Student Code of Conduct which adversely affect a smaller community.
   ii. Level Two violations generally are breaches of the Student Code of Conduct which are more serious and adversely affect the Rowan community at-large (including repeated Level One violations).
   iii. Level Three violations generally are breaches of the Student Code of Conduct which include threatening statements and/or behavior and unwanted contact that may compromise the health and safety of the Rowan University community at large or individuals, specifically (including repeated Level Two violations).

6. Appeals
   a. Upon receiving notification of the outcome of a case, the accused student, Complainant, victim (in cases of "sex offenses" or "crimes of violence) or the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee (in Campus Hearing Board cases) may file an appeal as outlined in Attachment 9. The appeals process described will be the final step in the discipline process and constitutes final agency action.

7. Procedures for Interim Suspension of Course participation, presence on Campus or Residence Areas and participation in University Related Activities
   a. A student may be suspended from continuing participation in coursework, being present on the campus or in campus residence areas or from participation in University related activities for an interim period pending a disciplinary hearing; the interim suspension is effective immediately without prior notice whenever there is evidence that the continued presence of the student on the campus may pose a substantial threat to others in the University or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions. (Refer to Attachment 10)

8. Conduct Code Violations' Effect upon Graduation
   a. A student found responsible for violations of the Code, which could have led to expulsion or suspension had s/he remained a registered student at the University and who has otherwise satisfied the University's published requirements for graduation, may have the awarding of his/her degree postponed to a future date or permanently withheld. A student whose graduation is postponed or permanently withheld may also be refused a copy of his/her official transcript and cannot have it sent to others during the period of his/her sanction. In cases where graduation is delayed due to pending charges, cases normally will be adjudicated within as short a period of time as is practicable.

9. Release of Disciplinary Record Information
   a. In accordance with current guidelines established in the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and implemented by Rowan University, the record of most disciplinary proceeding's findings is not open to the public or disclosure to a third party without the consent of the individual student.
      i. The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act, the N.J. Sexual Assault Victim's Bill of Rights, and/or 34 CFR 668.47(a)(12) (vi) and the Violence Against Women Act of 1994 (42 U.S.C 13925 (a)) does permit the disclosure of campus discipline system findings to victims of "sex offenses" (including non-forcible ones) or "crimes of violence." In addition, FERPA permits, once all appeals are exhausted, the final results of campus disciplinary hearings for crimes of violence and forcible and non-forcible sex offenses to be publicly disclosed, including the name of the accused held responsible and the nature of the offense.
      ii. Parents or guardians may be notified for cases involving crimes of violence and forcible and non-forcible sex offenses and in certain cases involving violations of campus drug or alcohol regulations, when the student is a dependent (as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986) or when the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee deems the matter to have been a health or safety emergency. Complainants in other kinds of cases will be notified about case adjudication and sanctions imposed if, in the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students' or designee's opinion, such disclosure is necessary to protect the safety of the complainant or of other members of the University community.
iii. If FERPA or other pertinent regulations change, the students involved will be notified before a hearing is held. Information regarding FERPA and the disclosure of information can be found on the Office of the University Registrar website at rowan.edu/provost/registrar/ferpa.html.

iv. The Office of Community Standards does not maintain or release police reports. Any request for a police report associated with a disciplinary case must be made to the issuing police department.

10. Record Keeping
   a. The Office of Community Standards will maintain student disciplinary files, which contain all necessary and appropriate correspondence, Hearing Officer, Campus Hearing Board, and appeal decisions as well as other documentation pertinent to any cases for which a student was found responsible for a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Records of cases that are designated as "pending" will also be maintained. Student disciplinary files will be maintained as follows:
      i. Disciplinary records will normally be maintained for a period of seven years after the last year of the student's attendance at the University.
      ii. The disciplinary records of students who were Suspended or Expelled will be maintained indefinitely.

11. Timelines
   a. All times set in the Student Code of Conduct may be extended by the University, for good cause. Reasonable extensions will be determined by the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee.

12. Interpretation and Revision
   a. Any question of interpretation regarding the Student Code of Conduct will be referred to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee for final determination. The Student Code of Conduct may be periodically reviewed and amended as necessary under the direction of the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee.

Rowan University - Glassboro Campus

1. Filing a Complaint –
Complaints against students/organizations may be made by any student, employee, or guest of the University who feels the Student Code of Conduct has been violated. A complaint must be made in writing to the Office of Community Standards, (Chamberlain Student Center, Suite 210) within a reasonable amount of time after the occurrence. This will normally be construed to mean within 30 calendar days, unless unusual circumstances exist or it is an alleged crime that the University must report under the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act. The “Community Standards Referral Form” can be accessed at https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?

RowanUniv&layout_id=6. The complaint should include as much detail concerning the alleged violation as possible and include the specific reference to the part of the Student Code of Conduct the complainant feels has been violated. The University reserves the right to investigate any reported incident, including those alleging biased behavior. Perceived criminal activity should be reported immediately to Public Safety, which will submit its report of a student violation to the Office of Community Standards. Whenever a complaint provides evidence that the continued presence of the accused student on the campus may pose a substantial threat to herself/himself, others in the University, or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions the University reserves the right to impose an interim suspension from classes, residence areas, or the entire campus pending a disciplinary hearing (refer to Attachment 10 for a complete description of procedures).

The following guidelines will be used to determine if a Student Organization/Group/Team would be charged with a violation of the Student Code of Conduct:

1. a. When one or more officers/authorized representatives/captains acting in the scope of their capacities committed the violation.
b. When one or more members committed the violation after the action that constitutes the violation was approved by a vote of the organization/group/team or was part of a committee assignment of the organization/group/team.
c. When the violation was committed at an activity funded by the organization/group/team.
d. When the violation occurred as a result of an event sponsored by the organization/group/team.
e. When one or more members of an organization/group/team or its officers/authorized representatives/captains permitted, encouraged, aided, or assisted in committing a violation.
f. When a reasonable person would construe the violation as being associated with the organization/group/team

2. Adjudication of Complaints
   a. The Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement or designee will review the complaint and determine whether it should be adjudicated by the student discipline system, and, if so, the appropriate adjudicator will be determined. The review of the complaint may not require meeting with all parties; The Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement or designee will determine what meetings are necessary. For any disciplinary action for which sanctions may be imposed, the accused student/organization will have his/her case heard before one of the following adjudicators:
   b. Administrative Hearing Officer - If the alleged violation is one for which the student/organization could not be suspended or expelled from the University, the complaint will be heard by an Administrative Hearing Officer.
   c. Campus Hearing Board - If the alleged violation is one for which the student/organization could likely be suspended or expelled from the University, the complaint will be heard by the Campus Hearing Board. (refer to Attachment 5 for additional information concerning the Campus Hearing Board) A hold and a transcript notation indicating "Pending Discipline" will also be placed on the accused student's transcript.
   d. Special Interim Hearing Board - If the Campus Hearing Board cannot meet, a Special Interim Hearing Board will be appointed at the discretion of the Office of Community Standards to expedite adjudication of student disciplinary cases under the following conditions:
      i. An interim suspension has been issued (see Attachment 10), or
      ii. The case must be adjudicated when the Campus Hearing Board cannot convene (for example, final exam week, vacation periods, or summer school, etc.)
   e. Given the sensitive nature and the unique legal issues related to cases involving sexual misconduct and sexual harassment complaints, campus disciplinary procedures have been modified to address complaints of sexual misconduct and sexual harassment. Refer to the Student Sexual Misconduct and Harassment policy for specific information.

3. Notification
   a. When it is determined that a complaint will be adjudicated by the student disciplinary system, the accused student/organization will be notified of the alleged violation in writing (the "Hearing Notice") via a tracked letter sent to the student's Rowan email address. This is the official method of notification and students are responsible for checking their University email address daily. The Hearing notice will state what portion of the Student Code of Conduct was allegedly violated. The student will be notified of the hearing date in the Hearing Notice. The student will receive notice of a hearing at least three (3) business days prior to an Administrative Hearing and five (5) business days prior to a hearing before the Campus Hearing Board or Special Interim Hearing Board.
   b. If the accused student/organization or complainant, if applicable fails to attend the hearing, except when there is a justifiable reason (serious illness or hospitalization, death of member of immediate family, serious physical emergency, arrest or incarceration, or unavoidable transportation delay), the hearing will proceed and a finding will be reached based upon the available information. No negative inference will be made from a failure of the accused student/organization or complainant to appear, participate or speak during a hearing.

c. The student will be notified of the option to request an "open" public hearing. Please Note: A request would only be granted if there is unanimous consent from all participants in the disciplinary case. The number of members of the public permitted to attend the hearing will be based on the reasonable seating space in the meeting room. No changes to the hearing date, time or location will be made in order to accommodate attendance by the public.

d. All participants have the right to select an Advisor of his or her choosing, including an attorney. Advisors are expected to talk quietly with the student or pass notes in a non-disruptive manner. Advisors may have no other role in the hearing/case and are not permitted to speak on behalf of the student, ask questions, or appear in lieu of the student/organization. Advisor availability will not be sufficient grounds for postponing a hearing. A hearing will not be cancelled or postponed in the event an Advisor does not attend. If the Advisor is not able to attend, the accused student/organization or complainant should arrange for a substitute.

e. A student who wishes to have an attorney as an Advisor must inform the Office of Community Standards in writing, by telephone, or electronic mail at least one business day prior to a hearing. If a complainant, accused student/organization or other participant informs the University that an attorney will be present at the hearing, the University will decide if legal counsel for the University should also be present.

f. Both the accused student/organization and the complainant have the right to bring witnesses to provide information at the hearing. Witnesses must have personal knowledge of the incident at issue and may serve no other role at the hearing/case. Witnesses may be present at the hearing only at the time they are called to participate. A hearing will not be cancelled or postponed if a scheduled witness does not attend.

g. Written statements of witnesses not in attendance due to extraordinary circumstances may be considered by Hearing Officer or the Campus Hearing Board. Character witnesses are considered irrelevant and will not be permitted to participate. A list of witnesses must be submitted to the Office of Community Standards at least one business day prior to the hearing. The list should include each witness' name and a summary of the information s/he is expected to provide.

4. Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver

a. The accused student/organization and complainant will also be informed if the disciplinary complaint can be resolved by completing an Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver. An Administrative Agreement/Hearing Waiver would be completed only when there is acknowledgement of responsibility on the part of the accused student/organization, and agreement, by all parties including the complainant, and/or victim that the sanction(s) imposed are reasonable and fair.

b. The sanction will reflect the severity of the current charge(s) against the student/organization, as well as any previous disciplinary All participants will also waive the rights to have the complaint adjudicated at a disciplinary hearing and appeal. Should the accused student/organization not accept responsibility for the charges, nor accept the proposed sanction(s), then appearance at the disciplinary hearing is required.

5. Administrative Hearing Officer Procedures

a. A student/organization may challenge the assignment of a specific hearing officer to his/her case for good cause. This challenge must be presented in writing to the Office of Community Standards at least one business day prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. Upon reviewing the details of the challenge, the Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement or designee will either uphold the challenge and appoint an alternate hearing officer and arrange a new hearing or deny the challenge.

b. A hearing officer will withdraw from adjudicating any case in which he/she cannot reach a fair and objective decision.

c. The hearing officer will exercise control over the manner in which the hearing is conducted to avoid unnecessarily lengthy hearings and to prevent the harassment or intimidation of witnesses. This includes, but is not limited to, rejecting redundant or irrelevant questions and imposing reasonable limits on the number of factual witnesses that may participate. An explanation and record of any rejected question will be made. Technical legal rules of evidence, the wording of questions, hearsay and opinions will not be formally applied. Anyone who disrupts a hearing or who fails to adhere to hearing procedures may be excluded from the proceeding at the discretion of the hearing officer.

d. The hearing officer will review all materials, hear all information pertinent to the case from the complainant, the accused student/organization and witnesses, consult with other hearing officers who are assigned to hearings within the same disciplinary case, clarify issues raised, render a decision based on the information presented, and take all actions and make all determinations necessary and proper for the hearing.

e. The accused student/organization will be presumed not responsible for the allegation. The hearing officer will determine if it was “more likely than not” that the accused student/organization was responsible after considering all of the credible information provided during the disciplinary hearing process. If the student is found in violation of University rules, any submitted statement of mitigating factors, records within the student's past disciplinary file and a written victim impact statement, if appropriate, will also be used in determining an appropriate sanction(s).

f. Following all hearings in the case, the hearing officer will provide the accused student with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

g. For cases involving a victim of "sex offenses" or "crimes of violence," the hearing officer will also provide the victim with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

CAMPUSS HEARING BOARD

1. Campus Hearing Board Structure
   a. The Campus Hearing Board is chaired by a non-voting Administrative Hearing Officer, who is normally an employee of the Student Affairs Division and most likely the Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement. For cases involving students participating in dual activities at another college (i.e. Rowan Choice program), the Campus Hearing Board will be co-chaired by the Executive Director for Student Engagement at Rowan College of South Jersey (or designee). The Campus Hearing Board is composed of nine regular members and a pool of alternates.
      i. Three members who are matriculated undergraduate or graduate students and in good standing with the University. Student members are selected through an application and selection process conducted by the Office of Community Standards. Information on membership requirements and the application is available on the Office of Community Standards website.
      ii. Three members of the University Senate who are appointed by the University Senate President.
      iii. Three members of the professional staff who are appointed by the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee.

b. The Campus Hearing Board may be convened by a quorum of any five members. For complaints that are adjudicated by a Special Interim Hearing Board any three members of the Campus Hearing Board must be present.

1. Campus Hearing Board Procedures
   a. Any student appearing before the Campus Hearing Board may challenge the assignment of any member of the Board to his/her case. This challenge must be presented in writing to the Office of Community Standards at least one business day prior to the scheduled date of the hearing. Upon reviewing the details of the challenge, the Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement will either uphold the challenge and appoint an alternate member or deny the challenge. Any challenge at the time of the hearing, will be decided by the Chair.

b. A Campus Hearing Board member will withdraw from adjudicating any case in which s/he cannot reach a fair and objective decision.

c. There will be an audio recording of the hearing (excluding Board deliberations and voting) for the purpose of providing assistance to the Campus Hearing Board or Appeals Board in their deliberations and to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee, and accused student or complainant for use in filing an appeal. This recording remains the property of the University and constitutes an official record of the hearing. No other recording of the hearing is permitted.

d. The Chair will make all determinations on questions of procedure and admissibility of information presented and will not be excluded from hearings or Board deliberations except that s/he will not vote. The Chair will exercise control over the manner in which the hearing is conducted to avoid unnecessarily lengthy hearings and to prevent the harassment or intimidation of witnesses. This includes, but is not limited to, rejecting redundant or irrelevant questions and imposing reasonable limits on the number of factual witnesses that may participate. An explanation and record of any rejected question will be made. Technical legal rules of evidence, the wording of questions, hearsay, and opinions will not be formally applied. Anyone who disrupts a hearing or who fails to adhere to hearing procedures may be excluded from the proceeding at the discretion of the Chair.

e. The Board will review all materials and hear all information pertinent to the case from the complainant, the accused, and all witnesses. Members of the Board, including the Chair, will be free to ask relevant questions in order to clarify information or resulting issues.

f. The accused student/organization will be presumed not responsible for the allegation. After private deliberations and by a majority vote, the Board will determine if it was "more likely than not" that the accused student/organization was responsible. A tie vote will result in a finding of "not in violation."

g. If the student is found "in violation" the Board will determine the appropriate sanction(s) to be imposed by majority vote with the exception of an expulsion. That sanction must be supported unanimously. The past disciplinary record of the accused student will not be supplied to the Board by the Chair prior to this point. Other information from either party, including any submitted statement of mitigating factors, a written victim impact statement if appropriate, or information from the Chair which is relevant to the choice of sanction(s), may also be introduced at this point, including information concerning sanctions imposed against other students for similar offenses. No information directly related to the case in question may be introduced for the first time unless the accused student has been informed and allowed to review and comment on the information.

h. Following the hearing, the Chair will provide the accused student with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

i. For cases involving a victim of "sex offenses" (including non-forcible ones) or "crimes of violence," the Chair will also provide the victim with written notification of the decision reached and information regarding the University's appeal process.

j. The Chair may also provide the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee with written notification of the decision reached and supporting case documents for the purpose of conducting a "Case Review." At the conclusion of the review, the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee may also file an appeal of the decision.

RIGHTS IN ALL DISCIPLINARY HEARINGS

The University disciplinary system is not a criminal or civil law process and the technical legal rules of evidence, the wording of questions, hearsay and opinions applicable in criminal and civil cases will not apply. University disciplinary hearings will accord the following specific rights to all students/organizations:

1. To receive written notice of any disciplinary charges.
2. To have reasonable access to the case file prior to and during any hearing, provided that all reviews, prior to the hearing, take place in the Office of Community Standards. Any alternate arrangements for the case file review may be made at the discretion of the Office of Community Standards. Note: The Office of Community Standards does not maintain or release police reports. Any request for a police report associated with a disciplinary case must be made to the issuing police department.

3. To have access to advice and support by an individual of his or her choosing, including an attorney.

4. To have no negative inference made from a failure of the accused student/organization or complainant to appear, participate or speak during a hearing.

5. The accused student/organization will be presumed not responsible for any allegation. Violation is found only after a review of the credible information presented determines that it was “more likely than not” that the accused student/organization was responsible.

6. The accused student/organization and the complainant will be given the opportunity to participate in the hearing, present information on their own behalf, bring witnesses and question those who provide information at their hearing. This does not include the right to ask questions directly.

7. Disciplinary hearings will be closed to all members of the campus and outside community except those directly involved with the case (including an individual selected as an Advisor). A participant in the case does have an option to request an "open" public hearing. Please Note: A request would only be granted if there is unanimous consent from all participants in the disciplinary case. The number of members of the public permitted to attend the hearing will be based on the reasonable seating space in the meeting room. No changes to the hearing date, time or location will be made in order to accommodate attendance by the public.

8. The accused student/organization will receive written notification of the decision reached after all hearings, connected to the complaint, are The notification will also include a list of any sanctions imposed and appeal information.

9. The accused student/organization will have the right to waive any of these rights.

10. The accused student/organization may submit a written statement to the Office of Community Standards detailing the presence of any mitigating factors. This statement will be considered when determining an appropriate sanction and only if the accused student/organization is found "in violation."

11. A victim may submit a written statement to the Office of Community Standards detailing the impact the violation has had upon them and their ability to function as a student. This statement will be considered when determining an appropriate sanction and only if the accused student/organization is found "in violation."

12. Victims of "sex offenses" or "crimes of violence" will receive written notification of the decision reached. The notification will also include a list of any sanctions imposed and appeal information.

13. To be free from intimidation, harassment, bullying, or any other form of retaliation throughout and following the disciplinary process.

SANCTIONS

Hearing Officers, Campus Hearing Board, or Special Interim Hearing Board may impose a single or multiple sanctions for violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Factors to be considered in deciding sanctions will include: past disciplinary record of the student, monetary fine resulting from a corresponding court case, the nature of the violation, and severity of any damage, injury, or harm resulting from it as perceived by the victim, and/or appropriate University officials. The imposition of a sanction will normally be effective from the date that the incident occurred. A disciplinary suspension or expulsion will normally result in withdraws from all the registered courses in the effective term, (not to exceed one academic term) regardless of the courses still being in progress or if final grades were submitted. Any request to have the effective date of a sanction deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis.
Normally there will be no refund of tuition/fees if expulsion, suspension or withdrawal from courses and/or University housing is affected because of violations of the Student Code of Conduct. Any request for a refund due to these circumstances must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis.

Sanctions, which may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct, include the following:

1. Official Warning: A written statement indicating a violation of the Student Code of Conduct has occurred and warning that a subsequent violation will likely be treated more severely.

2. Educational Task: Completion of task(s) which benefit the individual, campus, or community.

3. Monetary Fine: The student is required to pay a fine that has been placed onto their student account.

4. Suspension of Activity Privileges: The student cannot be a member of a recognized student organization, participate in organizations’ regularly scheduled activities, serve as a representative of the University, or participate in intramural, club, or intercollegiate sports. Notification of this sanction/status will be sent to appropriate University officials so they will know who may not participate in activities sponsored by their offices.

5. Disciplinary Probation: a designated period of time during which the student is given the opportunity to demonstrate the ability to abide by the community's expectations of behavior articulated in the Student Code of Conduct and is not considered to be in good social standing with the University. Another violation will likely result in a more severe sanction.

6. Suspension of Residence Privileges: The student's privilege to live in University-owned housing, and visit the residence areas of the campus, is suspended on a temporary or permanent basis. Any request to have the effective date of the Suspension of Residence Privileges deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis. The student is not entitled to any refund of campus housing and/or meal plan fees. Any request for a refund must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis.

7. Deferred Suspension: Deferred suspension is used for offenses found serious enough to warrant suspension, but where the specific circumstances of the case mitigate the offense or for repeated offenses of a less serious nature. Deferred suspension is a designated period of time during which a student is given the opportunity to demonstrate the ability to abide by the community's expectations of behavior articulated in the Student Code of Conduct. A student on deferred suspension is not considered to be in good social standing with the University. If the student is found responsible for violating any additional University code or regulation during the period of Deferred Suspension, the student may be immediately suspended from the University. The status of Deferred Suspension may include notification to parents of dependent students.

8. Suspension: Effective from the date that the incident occurred, the student may no longer be a registered student, may not attend classes, nor receive grades for a specified period of time. In addition, while in this status, the student may not be present on the campus nor at a University-sponsored event for any reason whatsoever. The suspension will be noted on the student's academic transcript. A disciplinary suspension will normally result in withdraws from all the registered courses in the effective term, (not to exceed one academic term) regardless of the courses still being in progress or if final grades were submitted. Any request to have the effective date of the Suspension deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis. The student is not entitled to any refund of any tuition/fees. Any request for a refund must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis.

9. Expulsion: Effective from the date that the incident occurred, the student may never again be a registered student, may never attend classes, nor receive grades. In addition, the student may never be present on the campus nor at a University-sponsored event for any reason whatsoever. The expulsion will be noted on the student's academic transcript. A disciplinary expulsion will result in withdraws from all the registered courses in the effective term, (not to exceed one academic term) regardless of the courses still being in progress or if final grades were submitted. Any request to have the effective date of the Expulsion deferred to a later date must be made in writing to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students and will be decided on a case by case basis. The student is not entitled to any refund of any tuition/fees. Any request for a refund must be made in writing to the
10. Other sanctions: Other sanctions may be imposed in addition to, or instead of, those described in #1 through #9 above. For example, costs associated with educational programs or damage repair fees may be charged or students may have use of University facilities limited or revoked.

Students who are found responsible for Student Code of Conduct violations which involve alcohol/drug (ab)use, may be required to attend educational programs intended to inform them about alcohol/drug use and abuse.

- a. The Office of Community Standards may notify parents/guardians of students less than 21 years of age when a student is found responsible for a violation of the Alcohol and Other Drugs Policy. Rowan Public Safety may notify parents/legal guardians when citations have been issued by law enforcement officials, without waiting for a hearing or any other due process since citations given by the law enforcement unit of a university are not covered by FERPA.

- b. Bias motivated offenses may result in more severe sanctions. Such offenses are defined as any offense wherein the accused student(s) intentionally selects the alleged victim because of the victim's actual or perceived characteristic, such as race, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, or a mental, physical, or sensory disability, or by any other distinguishing characteristic, or any other class protected under the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, N.J.S.A. 10:5-1 et. seq.

- c. Any sanction may be put on hold or deferred (i.e. not put into effect) for a predetermined period of time by the Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students or his/her designee. The original sanction(s) may be re-imposed immediately upon a further finding responsibility in a subsequent campus disciplinary hearing at any level.

- d. Sanctions for group or organization misconduct may include suspension, revocation or denial of recognition, partial or total de-funding, or the imposition of other appropriate sanctions.

- e. A student who fails to complete the terms of a campus disciplinary sanction by the given deadline will be charged with noncompliance under the Student Code of Conduct.

- f. Under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), violators of provisions of the Student Code of Conduct pertaining to certain acts of violence and/or sexual offenses may have their names and disciplinary findings publicly revealed.

- g. Students should be aware that conviction in criminal court for certain controlled substance offenses including drug possession and/or sale may have them declared ineligible for Federal financial aid for a period of time. See the Financial Aid Office for details.

1. Upon receiving notification of the outcome of a case, the accused student, victim (in cases of "sex offenses" or "crimes of violence) or the Associate Vice President for Student Life and Dean of Students or designee (in Campus Hearing Board cases) may file an appeal under the following circumstances:
   a. A procedural or substantive error occurred in the process that significantly impacted the outcome of the hearing (i.e., Material deviation from University policy; substantial bias; the findings and decision are contrary to the great weight of the evidence);
   b. New and significant information has become available which could not have been discovered by a properly diligent person before or during the hearing. (Please note: The outcome of a criminal or civil proceeding, related to the matter, will not constitute new and significant information.)
   c. The sanction is inappropriate in light of the violation.
2. All appeals must be made within five (5) business days of the date on the letter informing the parties of the decision. Appeals must be submitted in writing to the Office of Community Standards and should explain in detail the basis of the request, including any supporting documentation.
3. Upon receipt of the written appeal, the Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement may defer the imposition of the sanction(s) pending the decision on the appeal. Note: Interim Suspension as well as any other prior restrictions will remain in effect during the appeal process.
4. Cases adjudicated by the Campus Hearing Board will be forwarded to the Campus Appeals Board. All other cases will be forwarded to the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee.
5. An appeal will be responded to in a timely manner (usually two weeks) and a final decision will be issued in writing either accepting or denying the appeal. The student will be informed of any delay by the assigned Appeal Officer.
6. The Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement or designee is responsible for compiling the appeal documentation for review, scheduling the appeal review meeting as well as sending all correspondence to the parties involved. The Assistant Vice President for Civic Involvement or designee will have no other role during the appeal review meeting.
7. The Campus Appeals Board:
   a. The Board is comprised of a member of the University's Administration (appointed by the Office of the President), President of the University Senate, and the President of the Student Government Association. Designees may be used in any of the positions. Each member or designee must be in attendance for a quorum.
   b. The Board will review the written appeal and all documentation contained in the case file in a closed meeting. The Board by a simple majority vote will deny or uphold the appeal. If an appeal is upheld based on procedural error or new information reasons, the case will be remanded to the Campus Hearing Board for re-opening of the hearing. If an appeal is upheld based on inappropriate sanction reason, the Board will render the appropriate determination and/or sanction.
   c. Normally, all Campus Appeals Board decisions are final and will be forwarded to the Office of Community Standards for immediate implementation. For cases involving an expulsion of a student or permanent loss of recognition for a student organization, the accused student or organization, the victim (in cases of "sex offenses" or "crimes of violence), or the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee may request that the University President's Chief of Staff or designee of the University review the decision of the Appeals Board.
   d. A request for review by the University President's Chief of Staff or designee of the University must be made within two (2) business days of the date on the letter informing the parties of the Campus Appeals Board decision. The request must be submitted in writing to the Office of Community Standards and must include clear and convincing reasons to change the decision of the Campus Appeals Board. The University President's Chief of Staff or designee of the University may or may not elect to review a decision. The request for review will be responded to in a timely manner.
   e. If the University President's Chief of Staff or designee of the University elects to review the determination, the University President's Chief of Staff or designee of the University shall only overturn the decision if the facts presented demonstrate that the Appeals Board's determination was arbitrary and capricious. This means that the decision will be overturned only if the decision was invalid because it was made on unreasonable grounds or without consideration of the circumstances.

8. When it is not possible for the Campus Appeals Board to meet in a timely fashion (for example, final exam week, vacation periods, summer school, etc.), an appeal from the Campus Hearing Board may be reviewed by the Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students for final disposition.

9. The appeals process described will be the final step in the discipline process and constitutes final agency action.

ATTACHMENT 10

PROCEDURES FOR INTERIM SUSPENSION FROM COURSE PARTICIPATION, PRESENCE ON CAMPUS OR RESIDENCE AREAS AND PARTICIPATION IN UNIVERSITY RELATED ACTIVITIES

1. A student may be suspended from the entire campus, residence areas, extracurricular or other University related activities (ie. Internships, work study, etc.) for an interim period pending a disciplinary hearing; the interim suspension is effective immediately and without prior notice whenever there is evidence that the continued presence of the student on the campus may pose a substantial threat to others in the University or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions.

2. During an interim suspension from the entire campus, a student is not permitted to continue to participate in coursework in person or online, submit academic work or correspond with instructors. Course instructors and other appropriate staff are informed. Special permission is needed for the student to conduct routine business with the University, during this time.

3. The Associate Vice President for Student Affairs and Dean of Students or designee is generally authorized to impose Interim Suspensions.

4. If a student wishes to return to classes and/or residence on campus, he or she is required to make an appointment to meet with a designated administrator within five (5) business days from the effective date of suspension. The purpose of this Interim Suspension appointment is to determine the following:
   a. The reliability of the information concerning the student's conduct, including the matter of his/her identity.
   b. Whether the conduct and surrounding circumstances reasonably indicate that the continued presence of the student on the campus or at University activities likely poses a substantial threat to others or to the stability and/or continuance of normal University functions.

5. A disciplinary hearing will be scheduled at another time to hear the substantive issues involved. This follows the Interim Suspension appointment with the designated administrator and employs the procedures outlined earlier. An Interim Suspension, in and of itself, does not become part of a student's disciplinary record.
