This policy outlines the responsibilities under the Emergency Operations Plan to address this unique situation by defining what support and oversight is provided centrally while ensuring the campuses' day-to-day operations remain flexible, autonomous, and independent.

II. ACCOUNTABILITY

Under the direction of the President, the Assistant Vice President for Public Safety and the Office of Emergency Management, shall implement this policy and ensure compliance.

The Office of Emergency Management develops and maintains the Emergency Operations Plan for the University, ensures regular tests of emergency management systems are conducted and makes sure the necessary emergency services, police and security services and other support personnel are available when requested.

- c. The University President or his/her designees, in times of emergency or threat to the university community, may declare a campus emergency which may modify the University's or an individual campus' operational status as well as make available University resources and direct university operations to the incident. The size and scope of the emergency will be conveyed at the time of the declaration in accordance with the Emergency Operations Plan. Campus resources may be directed and made available to be utilized to prepare for the threat, to mitigate the incident and/or restore the University to an operational status.
- c. The Assistant Vice President of the Department of Public Safety and the Office of Emergency Management serves as the University's Emergency Management Coordinator, and as such, functions as the President's direct representative during public safety emergency operations. The EOT is comprised of key departmental heads and senior managers that have the authority to make decisions at the operational level to mitigate minor incidents or emergencies. The EMT is comprised of the Executive Cabinet, which makes university-wide decisions that affect the entire university. The Emergency Management Coordinator coordinates the efforts of the various team members. The Director of the Office of Emergency Management will manage resources, planning and the maintenance of the University Emergency Operations Plan and lead the support from the Emergency Operations Team.
- h. During Emergencies requiring the activation of the Emergency Operations Team, department heads shall remain in charge of their respective departments, and communicate their efforts with the EOC.

3. Compliance Procedures

Rowan's Department of Public Safety also coordinates response to fire and medical emergencies. Municipal partners will assist in rendering additional support and/or resources, if deemed necessary to mitigate an emergency response outside of the scope of the capabilities of University responders. The National Incident Management System (NIMS) protocols will be used to manage the incident or event when outside resources are needed, and requested by university officials. For emergencies at all Rowan University campuses,:
 - 1. From any University phone, dial direct at 4911/4922. If calling from an outside line dial 856-256-4911/4922.
 - 2. Any emergency where someone at Rowan dials 9-1-1, the call will immediately be re-directed to a Rowan Communications Center.

- b. Emergency Reporting and Response-Large Scale Event/Incident

During an emergency impacting the entire campus or region, normal reporting and response services may not be available. Rowan's Office of Emergency Management uses an Emergency Operations Center and the incident Command System to manage hour-by-hour decisions during and after a major event. Depending on the location of the emergency, the Emergency Operations Centers for Rowan are located at the following:

As requested by the Emergency Management Coordinator, departments may be required to provide direct representation to the Emergency Operations Center during an emergency, or disaster. The EOC may be required to be located in another location based on the nature of the emergency

- c. Recovery

All University Departments shall have a Continuity of Operations Plan to identify core operational functions, and the facilities and personnel needed to continue the mission of the University. The Emergency Operations Center will be utilized to manage large recovery operations and support department specific emergency plans. Department heads are required to maintain accurate records to record personnel and equipment costs for any potential insurance, or FEMA recovery claims. This information must be made available upon request, and submitted in a timely manner to the Assistant Vice of the Department of Public Safety and the Office of Emergency Management.

All cost recovery efforts are coordinated through the Office of Risk Management, Facilities and Operations, the Office of Finance, and the Office of Emergency Management.

4. Actions Implemented During Periods of Increased Risk

During periods of heightened risk, initial emergency information, direction and control will originate from the Rowan University Department of Public Safety and Office of Emergency Management. If it becomes necessary to activate the Emergency Operations Team, an Emergency Operations Center will be established. The Emergency Operations Center will be activated at the discretion of the Emergency Management Coordinator or, in his/her absence, by his/her designee for any emergency that exceeds the capabilities and resources of the University's regular emergency services and routine mutual aid. This would include incidents that may require an extensive and coordinated response.

The University will also take required and prudent steps to assure the continuity of operations and restoration of normal processes as quickly as possible following an emergency.

All procedures and regulations are subject to amendment.
